School Psychology Program
Ed.S. Program

Dr. Gerald D. Nunn, Program Director Ph: (208) 282-2750 email: nunngera@isu.edu
Dr. Paul B. Jantz, Assistant Professor Ph: (208) 282-4428 email: jantpaul@isu.edu

Please note:

1.) Courses must be taken in sequence.
2.) Ed.S Candidates may not take any Ed.S courses until all M.Ed. courses have been completed.
3.) Course substitutions must be approved by the School Psychology faculty and are subject to Graduate School Policy.
4.) Class substitutions must be approved by the School Psychology Faculty, must be graduate-level courses, and must equal the same number of credit hour requirements.

Ed.S. 2nd Year Sequence

Fall

_____3 credits	SCPY 615	Advanced Child Psychology
_____3 credits	SCPY 616	Psychological Assessment
_____3 credits	SCPY 664	Neurocognition and Learning
_____3 credits	SCPY 665	Clinical School Psychology
_____2 credits	SCPY 670	Clinical School Psychology Practical Applications
_____1 credits	SCPY 652	Specialist Paper

15 credits

Spring

_____3 credits	SCPY 699	Cognitive/Behavioral Interventions for Schools
_____3 credits	SCPY 699	Integrating Technology into School Psychology
_____3 credits	SCPY 662	Consultation in the Schools
_____3 credits	SCPY 699	Advanced Practicum in School Psychology
_____3 credits	SCPY 661	Techniques in School Psychology

15 credits

Summer

_____3 credits	SCPY 699	Clinical and Diagnostic Interviewing

3 credits

Ed.S. 3rd Year

Fall

_____3 credits	SCPY 759	Ed.S. Internship
_____3 credits	SCPY 759	Ed.S. Internship

6 credits

Ed.S. total credits = 70

_____* PRAXIS II School Psychologist Exam Date Taken_____ Date Passed_____
Score_____

_____* Ed.S. Oral Defense of Ed.S.Portfolio Date Taken _____ Date Passed_____

 The PRAXIS II Exam and the Oral Defense of Ed.S. Portfolio are considered to be academic benchmarks of Candidate competency. Therefore, all Candidates in the School Psychology Program are required to take, and pass, The PRAXIS II Exam and the Oral Defense of Case Study/Portfolio before they will be allowed to receive the Ed.S. degree.

Rev. Fall 2008